

Greater Grand Forks Symphony Orchestra

2021-2022 Concert Season – Auditions

Thank you for your interest in auditioning for the Greater Grand Forks Symphony Orchestra. The Greater Grand Forks Symphony Orchestra (GGFSO) is a community orchestra based in Grand Forks, North Dakota that began performing in 1908. GGFSO is only one in a handful of American orchestras older than 100 years. The Symphony features local and regional musicians in performances of classical and modern symphony music. The mission of the GGFSO puts excellence on stage to improve lives in Grand Forks and the surrounding region. The intention of the Symphony is to excite, educate, and inspire audiences with the highest quality performances of the most beautiful music. GGFSO perform four season concerts, a daytime Young Audience Concert and other additional chamber and orchestral concerts. All applicants are required to demonstrate either US citizenship, or a legal eligibility to accept employment.
